Protocols/Procedures for Your Visit:

- Arrive at the Carlyle Place entrance.
- Parents will remain outdoors.
- The teacher will hold a sign identifying themselves.
- Students should bring their school supplies.
- Students will be required to masks indoors.

We want this day to be special for your child. If they are having difficulty separating then we will have them meet their teacher outside. We want this day to be positive for your child and we will assist you and them in this process. If you would like more information about separation anxiety, please click HERE.
