DISTRICT PROCEDURES AND GUIDELINES

- Long-term assignments and homework may be given the day before a religious day of observance, but no short or long-term assignments or homework should be due the day after a religious day of observance.
- No tests should be given on or the day after a religious day of observance.

Out of respect for our multi-cultural community, the same guidelines will be extended to any student who observes a religious day not included on this list providing the family makes it known to the building principal who will then communicate with the counselors and team teachers.

- Teachers and students deserve to enjoy extended breaks. No assignments will be due upon return from an extended holiday break. These breaks are:
 - Thanksgiving Break
 - Winter Break
 - February Break
 - Spring Break
