MANDANA SHOJAEIFARD graduated from Roslyn High School in 2009, and was preparing to attend SUNY New Paltz when her life was tragically cut short that summer. Standing out among her many accomplishments during her time at RHS was her involvement with the Roslyn Film Society. After attending her first meeting as a freshman almost on a whim, she developed a passion and dedication for film that culminated in her year of service as President of the Society. In her time with us, the RFS and the film program, in general, grew by leaps and bounds; much of that success was a result of her commitment and energy. In It's a Wonderful Life, the angel says, "Each person's life touches so many other lives. When they aren't around, they leave an awful hole, don't they?" In how she lived her life, Mandana proved this to be true.

IFTIMIE SIMION was a master teacher in the Mathematics Department from September 2002 until May 2010. His unparalleled passion for the subject matter combined with his in-depth knowledge of mathematics served as an inspiration to his students and colleagues. He was the ultimate "go-to guy". If one was to ask any of the teachers in the department about Mr. Simion, they would certainly say that they are better teachers because of him. His passing has left an indelible memory on all who had the opportunity to know him.

A. JEFFREY WEINPER, a former Roslyn High School student, was a liberal individual, with an exceptional array of varied interests and sparkling creativity. He aspired to be a writer, chose to fight for peace, and wanted to learn about life through first-hand experience. Therefore, he enlisted for airborne infantry and Vietnam in 1967, at a time when many of his peers contended that fighting could never be a method of peace. In an article by Jeffrey published in Avant Garde Magazine, 1968, he explained, "For the many who stay behind, having no doubt found some substitute for experience (such as reading up on it, speaking to somebody who was there, etc.) to you, dear people, I promise this: If and when I come back, should you bystanders try to tell me anything about war or Vietnam or killing, I plan to look at you with all the contempt I can muster and sneer..."

A. Jeffrey Weinper was killed in April of 1968 and received the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart. The memorial award in his honor commemorates Jeffrey's true interest: creative writing.
