

ROSLYN HIGH SCHOOL

DEPARTMENT: World Languages

COURSE: Intro to Romance Languages

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF COURSE:

The basic skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing are developed. Emphasis is placed on the oral communication skills of listening and speaking. Basic language patterns are introduced and students become familiar with Italian culture and civilization. The values inherent in acquiring second-language proficiency and heightened cultural awareness of the multi-cultural society in which we live are promoted.

The students are familiarized with the study skills guide for foreign language.

The major topics that will be developed with relevant and appropriate grammar topics are: personal identification, house and home, family life, community and neighborhood, physical environment, meal taking and beverages, health and welfare, education, earning a living, leisure, public and private services, shopping, travel, and current events. These topics will be used to facilitate self-expression in Italian.
