

ROSLYN HIGH SCHOOL

LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

LANGUAGE ARTS

The focus of the Language Arts curriculum is to challenge students in the areas of expressive and written language. Objectives target instruction and application of these skills into functional settings across all aspects of school, home and the community. Emphasis on effective communication through listening, verbal and written expression is incorporated into daily activities.

GOALS

- Attend speaker, (visually and/or auditory) or task at hand
- Respond appropriately to speaker
- Follow multi-step directions
- Use verbal, non-verbal, and written communication to convey information, needs and wants
